- NFFR / Live Foal Terms – Solaris Sport Horses agree to supply fresh chilled semen (stud fee) free of charge until your mare is scanned in foal in 2012/13 and a live foal is born in 2013/14. A 50% charge of the years current stud fee will be required for mares wishing to return if barren after a period of two consecutive years only. Refunds will not be issued if a pregnancy does not result from the breeding nor if the nomination is not used.
- In the very unlikely event that the stallion is unable to full fill his collection duties due to accident, injury, illness or other Solaris Sport Horses will not be held liable financially liable for any vets fees or other associated costs incurred by the mare owner. Solaris Sport Horses will however provide semen from a second stallion if the mare owner wishes. The same applies for the non delivery of semen caused by loss in transit.
- N.B Semen shipping and collection fees are not included in the stud fee.
- Solaris Sport Horses or its Employees will hold no liability for damage or loss of semen whilst in transit. Liability is with the transport company and all losses should be sought from them.
- Covering certificates will be issued in the current year when the mare is scanned in foal and certified by a veterinary surgeon only and only if all fees have been paid in full.
- Free returns for the following year will only be granted to mares certified not in foal by a qualified veterinary surgeon. Frozen semen may be substituted if a stallion is not available for stud duties due to competition commitments or other.
